Issue: Expanding Kugelman Honors Program

Proposed Action: Information

Background Information:
The Kugelman Honors Program challenges and supports the highest-achieving and most creative undergraduate students at the University of West Florida. Recently, The Honors program has worked closely with Undergraduate Admissions to change the Honors admissions process. Under the leadership of Dr. Greg Tomso, Director of Kugelman Honors, there have been unique changes to the curriculum, increased scholarship opportunities and new high impact learning initiatives. This presentation will offer an update and the implications for the future of Honors at UWF.
