Article I. General Policy and Philosophy
A critical mission of the University of West Florida (UWF) is to promote a vibrant academic atmosphere in which students not only receive a well-rounded education, but learn to become productive and ethical members of society. University students are encouraged to think critically about issues that affect us all, carry themselves with integrity, develop a sense of ethical responsibility as well as treat others in a manner in which they wish to be treated. In addition, students have a duty to care for others in the University community, on or off campus, by rendering aid and seeking help from appropriate medical, emergency, or University staff members during a moment of need. This duty is an expectation at the University and will be commonly referred to as “The Good Samaritan Policy.” As such, the University of West Florida represents a community that values the basic tenets of: responsibility, integrity, scholarship, creativity, diversity, excellence and care. It is hoped that after students graduate, they apply the knowledge acquired during their tenure at UWF into their professional and personal lives. To help accomplish these objectives, the University of West Florida has drafted a Student Code of Conduct that is structured so that, as members of the UWF community, students are informed of their required roles and responsibilities, the rights that pertain to them, as well as how the Student Code of Conduct is administered.

University students and student organizations are expected to uphold appropriate standards of behavior and to respect the rights and privileges of others. This Student Code of Conduct applies to individual students as well as student organizations. All students and student organizations are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with all federal, state and local laws, and Board of Governors and University regulations, and policies.

The University is committed to ensuring that all students, faculty and staff are treated with dignity and respect. The University affirms its desire to maintain a learning and living environment for all students that is free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation. All members of the University community are responsible for ensuring that their conduct does not discriminate, harass or retaliate against others, and are to cooperate in maintaining a climate where discrimination, harassment and retaliation are not tolerated.

In keeping with the University of West Florida’s values, any sanctions imposed are for the purposes of restoring the standards of the University community, educating students and student organizations about the seriousness of their action(s), promoting civility and positive growth, while maintaining the safety and integrity of the University community.

The Student Code of Conduct applies to all UWF campuses, UWF Sponsored programs, including international and exchange programs and to off-campus conduct.

The University of West Florida President delegates administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Affairs, who delegates portions of the administration of the Student Code of Conduct to the Dean of Students, who may further delegate these responsibilities to other appropriate staff. All references to the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Affairs or Dean of Students in this Code also refer to his or her designee(s).
The Student Code of Conduct shall be reviewed, at minimum, every three years under the direction of the Vice President of Enrollment and Student Affairs. Vice President for Student Affairs by a committee composed of at least 50% students appointed by the student body president.

During the review the student will be provided with the opportunity to explain his or her perspective related to the basis and continued need for the interim measures. The scope of this review is limited solely to the determination of whether that student’s presence or continuation of activities adversely affects the health, safety or welfare of the University community.

c. Termination of Interim Measures: Interim measures may be lifted at the conclusion of the interim measure review process or at the conclusion of the disciplinary hearing. Interim measures will may be lifted when the University determines that a student or student organization’s presence or activities no longer adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of the University community.

Article VI. Procedures for Charges, Educational Conferences and Hearings (for Title IX Cases)

Federal anti-discrimination laws articulated in Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. §1681-1688) and federal regulations or guidelines require that institutions of higher education provide an equitable process for adjudicating cases of sexual misconduct, sexual violence and gender-based discrimination (“Title IX”). As such, the University has established an alternative hearing procedure under this policy to address and adjudicate alleged sexual misconduct, sexual violence and gender-based discrimination violations where the charged student is a University student and the complainant is a University student or employee.

When the University has received a Title IX complaint, the University’s Title IX Coordinator will review the complaint to determine whether, assuming the allegations to be true, the Title IX Policy would be violated based on the allegations. If the allegations would constitute a violation, the Title IX Coordinator will assign the case to a Title IX Investigator. The Investigator is a neutral fact-finder who, during the course of the investigation, typically conducts interviews with the complainant, the charged student, and any witnesses. At the conclusion of the investigation, if it is determined that there is sufficient cause to move forward with formal charges of misconduct against a student under this regulation, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Dean of Students Office.

1. Notice of Charges
   a. The Dean of Students Office will notify the charged student via email of the allegations and charges.
   b. The notice will include scheduling information for the Educational Conference.    b. During the conference the charged student will be given the opportunity to accept responsibility or not accept responsibility for the charges.
   c. If the charged student accepts responsibility for the charges:
      i. The charged student will be asked to sign the Educational Conference Form indicating his or her acceptance of responsibility and that he or she is waiving his or her right to a hearing.
      ii. An email documenting the charged student’s responsibility and the sanctions will be sent concurrently to the charged student as well as the complainant/victim within ten business days of the Educational Conference by the Dean of Students Office.
   d. If the charged student does not accept responsibility for the charges:
i. The charged student will be asked to sign an Educational Conference Form indicating that he or she does not accept responsibility for the charges and will be asked to select a hearing option.

6.0105 Student Conduct and Discipline.

(1) Each university board of trustees is required to provide a prompt, fair and equitable process for resolving student misconduct. In furtherance of the educational mission of the universities, each university board of trustees shall establish a student disciplinary system that protects the rights of the accused student, complaining parties and the university community, including a code of conduct, which shall include, at a minimum the following provisions:

(a) A written description of the rights and responsibilities of students, standards of conduct expected by the university, a list of violations, appropriate penalties or sanctions, and procedures for initiating and conducting student disciplinary proceedings.

(b) Definitions of terms used in the university’s code of conduct, such as "student" and "university community."

(c) A statement that the code of conduct shall govern student behavior both on and off the university’s campus.

(d) A description of the available university disciplinary proceeding forum which may consist of a university official or officials or a committee or panel. Where a committee or panel is the forum, students shall make up at least one-half of the membership.

(e) A written description of the general procedures to be followed in the disciplinary proceeding which shall include a description of each step of the disciplinary process and any assistance that may be available to the student at the university for preparing for the disciplinary proceeding.

(f) A written procedure for the disposition of cases that require immediate action and involve the health, safety, or welfare of the student or a member of the university community.

(g) A provision stating that the burden of proof in a disciplinary proceeding is not on the student subject to the disciplinary proceeding.

(h) A provision stating that the burden of proof required in disciplinary proceedings shall be a preponderance of the evidence. This means that the information presented supports the finding that it is more likely than not that the violation occurred.

(i) A provision setting a time limit for charging a student with a violation of the university’s code of conduct, and a description of those circumstances in which that time limit may be waived by university officials.

(j) A provision requiring an accurate and complete record of each disciplinary proceeding to be made and preserved. Retention of the record is subject to the General Records Schedule GS5 for Public Universities and Colleges.
(2) Each university shall publish, at a minimum on its internet website, the regulations and policies comprising its student disciplinary system, including the code of conduct.

(3) Each university shall comply with 20 U.S.C. s. 1232g, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended and other requirements of state and federal law relating to the confidentiality of the records and reports of students.

(4) Each university shall incorporate the following minimum requirements in its student disciplinary system:

(a) The student shall be provided with written notice of the charges in sufficient detail and in sufficient time to prepare for the disciplinary proceeding. In no case shall the written notice of charges be provided to the student less than five (5) business days (excluding legal holidays) prior to the disciplinary proceeding, except in cases of emergency as specified below or unless waived by the student. Written notice may be provided by electronic delivery to the student’s officially designated university email address.

(b) The student shall be entitled to a disciplinary proceeding within timelines established by each university. Except as set forth in Section (8) below, the student has a right to a disciplinary proceeding conducted by a committee or panel. This right may only be waived where:
   (i) permitted by the university; and
   (ii) requested by the student in writing on forms provided by the university which include an explanation of the effect of the waiver.

(c) The student may have, at the student’s own expense and initiative, an adviser present at the disciplinary proceeding. It is the student’s responsibility to make appropriate arrangements for the adviser to attend the disciplinary proceeding which shall not be delayed due to scheduling conflicts of the chosen adviser. The adviser may be present to advise the student but shall not speak for or present the case for the student or otherwise participate directly in the disciplinary proceeding.

(d) The student and the student’s adviser, if any, have the right to inspect all of the information that will be presented during the disciplinary proceeding at least three (3) business days (excluding legal holidays) before the disciplinary proceeding. The university also has the right to review any information the student intends to use at least three (3) business days (excluding legal holidays) before the disciplinary proceeding.
(e) The student may present information at the disciplinary proceeding that is relevant to the proceeding.

(f) Upon request by the student, the complainant, or other participants, the university may permit the individual to provide relevant information during the disciplinary proceeding in a manner that avoids direct contact with the student, the complainant, or other participants.

(g) All parties to the disciplinary proceeding may arrange for witnesses to voluntarily present relevant information during the disciplinary proceeding. The questioning of witnesses shall be facilitated by the person or body conducting the disciplinary proceeding. Each university shall have a procedure for the questioning of witnesses. Pertinent records, reports, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted as information for consideration in the disciplinary proceeding.

(h) The student may not be forced to present testimony that is self-incriminating; however, the university is not required to postpone disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of a criminal prosecution. The university disciplinary proceeding is not a criminal or judicial proceeding and is designed to address student behavior; therefore, alleged violations of the university’s code of conduct will be addressed independently of any penalty imposed by the courts for the criminal offense. This means that the rights and rules of evidence or procedure in a civil or criminal proceeding do not apply in a student disciplinary proceeding.

(i) The decision of responsible or not responsible on the charges of violating the university’s code of conduct must be based solely on the information presented at the disciplinary proceeding.

(j) A student found responsible for a violation of the university’s code of conduct shall be subject to sanctions commensurate with the offense with consideration given to any aggravating and mitigating circumstances, including but not limited to the student’s conduct record.

(k) The decision of any university disciplinary proceeding must be presented to the student in writing and within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of the disciplinary proceeding, as specifically prescribed by the university’s code of conduct.

(l) If the decision of a university hearing or review forum arising out of a university disciplinary proceeding constitutes a recommendation to a university official for official action, the university’s code of conduct must specify the actions that the university official may take with respect to adopting, modifying, or rejecting the recommended decision and sanctions, or remanding the matter for a rehearing. Any differences between the recommendation arising out of the university disciplinary proceeding and the university official's disciplinary decision, and the reasons therefore, must be presented to the student in writing.

(m) Each university code of conduct shall describe the internal appeals processes. Each university shall have at least one level of internal appeal. No person may hear or decide an appeal if he or she conducted or participated in the disciplinary proceeding being reviewed on appeal.

(n) A student shall remain eligible to attend classes and university activities pending the university's disciplinary decision, and until any appeal is concluded except as set forth below:

1. in cases where the president or president's designee determines that the health, safety, or welfare of the student or a member of the university community is involved, the student may be temporarily suspended from classes and/or university activities,

2. in cases where the sanction(s) determined by the university official(s) in the disciplinary decision include either suspension or expulsion, the student’s privileges at the university, including the ability to attend classes and engage in university activities may be revoked.

3. If a student's privileges are temporarily suspended or revoked as described in this paragraph, but the student is subsequently found not responsible for the violation, the university must:
   i. Correct any record of the change in enrollment status in the student's permanent records and reports in a manner compliant with state and federal laws; and
   ii. Refund to the student a pro rata portion of any charges for tuition and out-of-state fees, as appropriate, if the temporary revocation or suspension of the student’s ability to attend classes lasts for more than ten (10) school days.

(5) At the conclusion of the appeals process, the decision of the president or the president's designee shall be final. Final appellate decisions resulting in a suspension or expulsion of a student must include notice to the student of the student’s right to appeal to an external judicial forum.

(6) A student may be subject to discipline for conduct that violates the university code of conduct, even where that conduct occurs off-campus. The action of the university with respect to off-campus conduct shall be taken independently of any off-campus authority.
(7) Each university's code of conduct shall include a description of the rights of alleged victim(s) in the student disciplinary system. The university shall provide notice to the alleged victim(s) of their rights at least five (5) business days (excluding legal holidays) before the disciplinary proceeding is conducted. Each university is encouraged to provide support and assistance programs for alleged victim(s), as appropriate.

(8) The following procedures are applicable to complaints arising out of an alleged violation of university prohibitions against sexual misconduct, including gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking:

(a) The university may provide for the student and the complainant to each participate individually in a voluntary informational conference. The purpose of the informational conference is to provide an opportunity for a university representative to review the allegations, the charge(s), and possible sanctions, and explain the conduct process and any alternative forms of dispute resolution that may be available to the student and the complainant.

(b) To the extent allowed by state and federal privacy laws, the complainant shall be permitted to participate in the disciplinary proceeding. Such participation may include the presence of an adviser, the ability to present information and witnesses in the disciplinary proceeding, the right to avoid self-incrimination, notification of the final result of the disciplinary proceeding and any subsequent changes to the final result, and the right to appeal the decision.

(c) The disciplinary proceeding shall be conducted by a university official or panel of university officials, except a university may provide for a committee or panel where students comprise at least one-half of the membership if such committee or panel is requested by the student and no objection is raised by the complainant.

(d) Upon request by the student, the complainant, or other participants, the university may permit an individual to provide relevant information during the disciplinary proceeding in a manner that avoids direct contact with the student, the complainant, or the other participants.

(e) In the event the student accepts responsibility or is found responsible, any impact statement provided by the complainant and/or victim will be considered by the university official(s) in recommending or issuing the disciplinary sanction(s). The statement may include a description of how the complainant was impacted by the conduct violation and may include a recommendation for sanctions. While the impact statement is not binding, the impact described in the statement together with the totality of the circumstances including the student’ conduct record, should be considered by the university official(s) involved in recommending or determining the appropriate sanction(s).

(9) Each university shall establish a committee, which shall include student representation, for the periodic evaluation of its student disciplinary system.
