Issue: Title IX (Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Violence and Gender-based Discrimination) Update

Proposed action: Provide the Student Affairs Committee with an update on Title IX related initiatives.

Background information: In April 2011, the Office for Civil Rights (“OCR”) in the Department of Education issued a “Dear Colleague Letter” related to the manner in which colleges and universities handled allegations of sexual misconduct and gender-based discrimination. Since then, OCR has issued several additional Title IX administration Dear Colleague Letters. Beginning in 2013, the Board of Trustee’s Student Affairs Committee has received yearly Title IX updates.

This presentation will include an update on UWF’s Title IX statistics, the new sexual violence landing page, and new Title IX video training options available for students and faculty/staff.

Recommendation: For information only

Implementation Plan: NA

Fiscal Implications: NA

Supporting documents: none

Data Conclusions

• In all 60 complaints, the Victim received information for support and counseling services, how to file a criminal complaint, and the option to pursue a Title IX investigation.

• Eighty-three percent (83%) of the sexual violence Victims choose not to pursue a Title IX investigation. Reasons include:
  – only want counseling resources
  – only want no-contact orders issued
  – only want housing reassignment
  – prefer to pursue a criminal complaint
Data Conclusions

• Our data suggests that sexual violence is most frequently reported by/occurring among Freshmen, Sophomore, and International students.

• Seniors tend to report sexual harassment and stalking at higher numbers than Freshmen, Sophomore, and Juniors.
