Last Class Withdrawal - Student Instructions

Overview

This form is used by students wishing to withdraw from their last class or all classes after the Add/Drop period. If the withdrawal deadline has passed for the current term students should submit an Appeal for Late Class or University Withdrawal.

- This form will NOT inactivate you from the University. If you are a new admit contact Admissions to cancel your application.
- If it is BEFORE or DURING add/drop period of the current semester please click here for directions to drop last class.
- Please read Withdrawing After Drop/Add and refer to the University Catalog for more information regarding withdrawals.
- Students should use this form to withdraw from Last Class or ALL classes for the current semester.
- An active registration in classes is required to withdraw from courses.
- Students must submit this form to complete a University Withdrawal; withdrawing from all classes online is not an option.
- The deadline for an individual class withdrawal and a University Withdrawal are the same. Please refer to the Academic Calendar for specific dates. After the deadline, an Appeal for Late University Withdrawal must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar.
- Students receiving financial aid should visit or contact the Financial Aid Office at bldg. 18, (850) 474-2400, for an analysis of how a University Withdrawal will affect financial aid.
- A survey will be sent by the Office of the Registrar upon receipt of the form. The completed survey is required in order for the University Withdrawal to be processed.

Instructions

Students will be able to access the Last Class Withdrawal via MyUWF which will require logging in with your Argonet ID and password. Students will be able to complete and submit the form online. The form will route directly to the Registrar's Office once the form is submitted by the student. If further information is needed, the student will be notified.
