Fill out any required information
Once an appeal is chosen, it will be displayed below the 'Choose Appeal' dropdown. A description of the appeal and any important information will be displayed. Some appeals require information to be selected and some do not. Fill out any required information.
Choose any departments helping with this appeal

If you are working with a department to help with this appeal, select it from the list. More than one department can be selected. Any department selected will be notified of the appeal and will have the option to provide any supporting documents or comments.

Start the appeal

When the appeal has been chosen, all required information provided and any departments have been selected, click the 'Start Appeal' button.

If the appeal was successfully started, you will see a message similar to this. You will shortly receive an email directing you to the form that was created. Follow the link in the email.
General Education / Gordon Rule / Multicultural requirement appeals

General Education Appeals allow students to

- request evaluation of transfer coursework intended to satisfy General Education, Gordon Rule, and / or Multicultural requirements
- request an hours adjustment for transfer courses earned on a quarter-hour basis
- request a UWF course substitution for a General Education, Gordon Rule, and / or Multicultural requirement
- request course waiver(s) or substitution(s) on the basis of disability (NOTE: Students must first register with Student Accessibility Resources (SAR) and discuss the course substitution with their office prior to submitting an appeal. See Substitution/Modification of Graduation Requirements for Students with Disabilities for more information.)

*Students must attach appropriate documentation (course syllabus, catalog description, or letter from the instructor/advisor/SAR) in order for the General Education Committee to review.

Open email

You will get an email that looks similar to this. Click the ‘Review Document’ link. You will be taken to Docusign and may need to log-in if the email was sent to a non UWF student account and you already have a Docusign account. If you do not have a docusign account you will be prompted to create one after you have reviewed and signed the document.
Open the Document

Click on ‘Continue’ to open the document.

Add an attachment

You must now add an attachment, this is required. You can add as many attachments as necessary to describe the need for the appeal. Appeals for General Education, Gordon Rule, and/or Multicultural requirements should attach a course syllabus, catalog description, or letter from the instructor/advisor/Student Accessibility Resources. Click the ‘Attachment’ button.

Choose Upload or Fax then click ‘Continue’

Attachments

How would you like to add your attachments?

- Upload
- Fax

CONTINUE  CANCEL
Click 'Upload a File' if you chose to upload.

Upload Attachment

Find the file you would like to upload and click Open. This will add it to the Upload Attachment screen. Keep adding attachments until all you would like to include in the appeal are visible. Once finished, click 'Done'.

Sign the form

Click the 'Sign' button. You may be asked to select a signature or upload your own.

After you have signed the form, it will look like this

Submit the form

Now you must submit the form. Either at the bottom of the page or in the upper right corner is a 'Finish' button. Click that button. You have now completed your step of the appeals process. The form will be routed for approval and you will be notified of the outcome.
