Viewing Student Registration Information

Overview

The Registration Status link page includes the following information and can be accessed using the Registration Menu app in MyUWF: Time Ticket, Holds, Academic Standing, Student Status, and Permits/Overrides.

- Time Ticket

  A Time Ticket is a registration day/time assigned to a student. Below displays the order for Advanced Registration.

  Regardless of how long a Time Ticket is effective for, you will only be able to register for courses during that course's specific registration period. Courses that are offered during different parts of term may have different add/drop periods.

  To view your most recent, applicable Time Ticket, please see Updating your Time Ticket.

- Advanced Registration

  Day 1:

  - Currently enrolled graduate degree seeking students
  - Students registered with Military & Veterans Resource Center
  - Honors Students
  - Students registered with Student Accessibility Resources
  - Athletes
  - Students registered with Student Success Programs
  - International Exchange students (with IEIS attribute)
  - MARC & Chem Scholars
  - Seniors with active graduation application on file

  Day 2:

  - Currently registered Seniors without graduation application on file

  Day 3:

  - Currently registered Juniors

  Day 4:

- Holds

  For information on how to view your holds, please see Viewing Holds.

- Academic Standing

  Students in Good Standing, on Academic Warning and Probation are allowed to register for courses. Students who have an Academic Standing of Suspended are not allowed to register for courses and must be reinstated prior to registration.

- Student Status

  Your student status refers to whether you are an active or inactive students. Students become inactive after not taking courses at UWF for 3 semesters. Inactive students must apply for readmission.

- Permits and Overrides

  A permit or override would be issued by an academic department and/or advisor to make an exception to allow a student to take a course which he/she would not normally be allowed to register for. Permits and overrides may also be required for registration for certain types of highly restricted courses.

FAQs

Why would I update my time ticket?

You are assigned a time ticket based on student classification as well as any student attribute or cohort you have on your record. If your classification or student status changed (i.e., you had transfer hours added to your record, bumping you up from a junior to a senior), you qualify for an earlier time ticket. You will need to select the "update your time ticket" link on the registration status screen. You can also search for the app in myUWF by typing "Priority Registration" in the search bar. The app will never give you a later time ticket, even if your status dictates that your registration period should be later.
