Dropping Courses

Overview
Here you will find instructions on how to drop courses.

NO students are permitted to drop ALL of their courses online.

Students wishing to drop all courses should drop as many as possible online, then contact the Office of the Registrar in order to be removed from their last class.

• If you intend to re-enroll that same term, DO NOT email the Registrar with a course drop request, you should attempt to register for the new courses, then drop the old ones.

Refer to the Academic Calendar for specific dates and deadlines for the add/drop and withdrawal periods.

FAQs

What if I want to drop all of my courses?
Dropping your final course indicates that you do not wish to enroll at UWF at this time. Students wishing to drop all courses must submit the request in writing to the Office of the Registrar. If you are changing your schedule, make sure you stay in at least one course during the drop/add process.

What if I'm registered in a Part of Term 5-9 course?
Generally, Parts of Term 5-9 courses' last day to drop is the fifth business day of the course, after it has started. Please email registrar@uwf.edu for assistance in dropping your Part of Term 5-9 course before the drop deadline has passed.
