Accessing eLearning

Are you having trouble accessing eLearning? Follow one of the processes below to gain access to eLearning.

Instructions

Please see the sections below for instructions based on your enrollment status:

I am currently enrolled in an eLearning course and have an active ArgoNet account

1. Log in to MyUWF*
2. Click the eLearning App

*If you are unable to log into MyUWF, please visit Accessing MyUWF for instructions on recovering your login credentials.

If you are unable to see your courses in eLearning after logging in, please visit Finding your classes in eLearning.

I am a Continuing Education student

1. Visit elearning.uwf.edu
2. Log in using ‘Continuing Education’
3. Enter your Login ID (email address) and password
4. Click Log In*

*If you are unable to log into eLearning, please visit Continuing Education eLearning Account Activation and Recovery for instructions on recovering your login credentials.

I have not registered for courses

We're sorry, eLearning is only available to currently enrolled students or Continuing Education students.
