Dynamic Forms

Overview
Dynamic Forms is a third-party software that provides a simple way for the University to build Internet-based, sophisticated, interactive forms. The University may ask students (prospective, current, and former), their parents, and University faculty and staff to complete forms using this software.

Pages on this Topic